Dear our beloved library patrons,

Hope this letter finds you well. I regretfully have to tell you that Lucy has come home to stay with me and my brother (her father). Lucy loved the time she spent with you but she was very, very homesick. Have you ever missed your mom and dad so much that you were very, very sad? That's what happened to Lucy. Now I will let her write.

Love, Lucky the Library Lizard

Hi guys- I hope you can forgive me for leaving you like I did and coming home to my family. I loved being with all of you, but I missed my mom and dad soooo much I couldn't be away from them any longer (and brrrr it's cold in Morrisville-I needed to get warm!). I enjoyed reading all the books and participating in summer reading. I will miss all of you but a good thing happened! You got me hooked on books and I have already gotten a library card from my library here and have been checking out books A LOT already!

I do have a surprise for you though! My ever daring, ever wild and crazy little brother, Louie, has decided he needs to "see the world". So he should be arriving at the library to live with all of you shortly! Be sure to show him everything you have shown me but keep a close eye on him! He tends to be wild sometimes and he may do some things he shouldn't. But I believe that you guys can keep him in check.

Enjoy spring as it should be arriving soon! I will keep in touch!

Love, Lucy the Library Lizard
